Bay View Artistic Director Chris Ludwa has announced that the Association will produce "Grease" as the musical for 2011.

The thrill of seeing so many youth and community members involved in the theatre has brought new energy and focus to the desire to involve young people and produce shows that are family-friendly, he said. "Grease" has parts available for everyone from 12 years old to adults, so put on your dancin' shoes, slick back your hair and prepare for a rockin' n' rollin' good time.

The production dates will be announced soon, along with the opera, youth theatre and revue.

By-Law proposals rejected; board officers unchanged

Bay View members rejected three proposals to amend the Bay View By-Laws at the Saturday, Aug. 7, Annual Meeting.

The proposal to amend section 61 regarding breach of peace, that would have extended the hours of quiet from 6 p.m. to 8 a.m., went down to defeat 261-318.

A proposal to amend section 41-B regarding dates of occupancy, to allow unrestricted access to cottages outside the May 1 to Nov. 1 occupancy dates, was overwhelmingly rejected, 124-483.

A proposal to amend section 66 regarding motorcycles, which would allow mopeds, motorbikes or motor scooters with a valid operating license, was soundly defeated 174-403.

There were no contested seats on the board of trustees, with all three candidates, the Rev. David Kidd, Dr.

Glenn Stevens, and Robert Zetterberg automatically winning three year terms.

There also were no changes to the board officers. Larry Ternan remains as president, Stevens is vice president Rose Crandell is secretary and Barbara Merrell continues as treasurer.

The next board meeting is 8:30 a.m. today, Friday, Aug. 20, at the Wade Administration Building board room.

Bay View briefs . . .

American Experience Week

During the American Experience Week for 2011, five lectures will be presented by Ronald C. White Jr. White is most recently the author of "A. Lincoln: A Biography" (Random House, 2009) and author of several other books on Lincoln and his time, including "Lincoln's Greatest Speech: The Second Inaugural." The lectures are scheduled for the week of Aug. 8. Earlier in the season, the Education Committee will provide a class to read and discuss Lincoln's "greatest speech."

Lillian Dye memorial

Lillian Dye passed away peacefully last weekend after an extended period of failing health. Our family will hold a service at Bay View next year, date to be determined. There was a service 7-9 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 18, at Girton Schmidt Boucher Funeral Home in Eaton, Ohio. Lillian's obituary and service details at: <http://www.gsbfuneralhome.com/>. Thank you all for your kind words, thoughts, efforts and prayers on her behalf.

International Film Festival

The 2010 International Film Festival will continue at 8 p.m. Monday, Aug. 23, in Voorhies Hall with the new Jane Campion film "Bright Star." This true, romantic story is set in 19th century England and is based on the undying love of the poet, John Keats, and Fanny Browne. It stars Abbie Cornish, Ben Whishaw, Paul Schneider and Kerry Fox. Next up, on Monday, Aug. 30, is "The Ninth," an amazing film co-produced by France and Canada based on the final movement of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. The International Film Festival is made possible by the Bay View Education Committee. Although there is no charge for admission to view the films, donations are greatly appreciated.
