Handbells Charm Bay View

By Kay Flavin, Development Director

For 37 years the sound of handbells have been ringing in Bay View. Each year Carl Wiltse, Director, comes from Scotland to conduct Bay View's annual handbell concert. This year 104 handbell ringers arrived in northern Michigan from the United States, Canada and France. Many ringers consider Bay View their favorite ringing experience and return year after year.

In order to participate a ringer registers on line and the window for registration closes when the maximum of 104 registrants is reached. It can be as short as 48 hours, but sometimes longer. Once registered, plans to travel to Bay View begin. Each ringer pays tuition, travel expenses and other personal costs in order to participate. One of the handbell ringers, Sheena Hunter, travels from her home in Maryland to Pennsylvania and transports the bass bells and chimes directly from the factory, Malmark Handbells, Inc., followed with his composition, Bell Tango. Every year the handbell choir closes with the singing of The Lord Bless You and Keep You.

The hard work, musical talents, choreographed selections and dedication are special gifts to Bay View and engaging memories for all attendees. The handbell concert is definitely an experience that rings throughout Bay View until next season. All proceeds, from the freewill offering, go to Bay View's Performing Arts Program for music scholarships. Thank you Carl and ringers for gifting Bay View!
